The new design world from HÜPPE

VICTORIAN

The VICTORIAN design world is representative and familiar. It draws from a rich wealth of historical decoration. Stonemasons, artists and sculptors have perfected their crafts over generations and handed them down to the next generation. VICTORIAN is an homage to the craft and to the romantic baths of the early 20th century.

HÜPPE Studio victorian

Nomen est omen: The new HÜPPE Studio victorian swing door series combines attractive, classic Victorian design with the highest quality and uncompromising functionality.

- The decorative frame in high shiny gold or warm bronze gives your bathroom an harmonic, romantic tone.
- The gently rounded glass surfaces are a joy to behold. There is a choice of four stylish decor variants as well as satin or clear glass with easy-maintenance Anti-Plaque finish.
- The striking bow-shaped handles inside and out ideally convey the historic theme of the HÜPPE Studio victorian.
- The HÜPPE Studio victorian can be flexibly adapted to any shower shape - as a square, quadrant, recess or bathtub solution.

HÜPPE Design victorian

Lustrous or not, the shiny HÜPPE Design victorian swing door series lets your bathroom radiate bright high-gloss silver uncompromisingly. Your specific preferences will be particularly eye-catching:

- The elegant frame with chrome-look surface gives off an aura of unobtrusive elegance.
- The striking bow-shaped handles are a decorative design statement - also made of high-quality chrome of course.
- The HÜPPE Design victorian can be adapted to any bathroom layout: there are numerous square, quadrant and pentagonal shower tray solutions available.
- The HÜPPE Design victorian series also offers an impressively varied selection of glass types: Its four stylish decors plus clear and sand-blasted glass with optional Anti-Plaque finish will meet every expectation.
